

LOCKERBIE ICE RINK

Alison Muir Trophy

The final of the Senior League for the Alison Muir Trophy sponsored by the Muir family was played at Lockerbie Ice Rink last week. The final was between the rinks skipped by David Carlyle and Graham Anderson. The Carlyle rink had the upper hand throughout the game and eventually won by thirteen shots to two. The winning rink consisted of David Carlyle (Skip), Tom Owen, Donald Hastings and Paul Shaeder. The runners up were Graham Anderson (Skip), Roy Broatch, Anne Key and Susan Drummond. Marion Murdoch, on behalf of the ice rink management, oversaw the presentation. Marion thanked the Muir family for their continued sponsorship of this popular competition before asking Emily Muir, grand daughter of the late Alison Muir, to present the prizes to the finalists.
