

DUMFRIESSHIRE PROVINCE – QUEENSBERRY TROPHY

The final of the Queensberry Trophy competition sponsored by the Dumfriesshire Province, was held at Lockerbie Ice Rink last Thursday evening. The final was a repeat of the last two finals between rinks skipped by Jim Hogg and Rae Graham. Hogg stole a two against the head on the first end, however, Graham then strung a few ends together which led to Hogg conceding after seven ends. The winning rink consisted of Rae Graham (Skip), Claire Sloan, Dave Stewart and Alison Boyd, with the runners up being Jim Hogg (Skip), Irene Doidge, Ron MacGrouther and Natalie Doidge.

Dumfriesshire Province Secretary Richard Smith welcomed all to the presentation of prizes, thanked all involved in organising the competition before presenting the prizes to the winners and runners up.
