

Dumfriesshire Province Curling – Waterlow Cup

The Waterlow cup final was played at Lockerbie ice rink recently between Corrie and Waterbeck curling clubs. The trophy was sponsored by James Jones & Sons sawmill, the province wishes to thank them for the continued support of this historic trophy first played for in 1893. Corrie won the Waterlow trophy for the first time since 2017 by twenty shots to seven after each club won one game each. The Corrie rink of Robert McBride (S), Gregor Bell, Thomas & Bruce Goldie beating Reuben Beattie (S), Erin Davidson, Jake Beattie & Alistair Laird and the Waterbeck rink of Gareth Owen (S), Thomas Coates, Stuart Grieve & Graham Anderson beating the rink of Russel Smith (S), Stuart Hills, Callum Cameron & Dominic Murray. Richard Smith on behalf of the Dumfriesshire province committee oversaw the presentation.

Pictured are the winning Corrie teams (Left to Right) Callum Cameron, Dominic Murray, Bruce Goldie, Stuart Hills, Russel Smith, Gregor Bell, Thomas Goldie & Robert McBride