

Dumfriesshire Province Curling Competition

The final of the Dumfriesshire Province curling competition for the Durisdeer trophy was played last week at Lockerbie ice rink. The final of the competition sponsored by Queensberry and Buccleuch Estate was played between the rinks from Corrie & Rae Graham. It was the Corrie rink skipped by Jim Black that made the better start and led by five shots to two after four ends, the Graham rink skipped by Graeme Black gradually got back into the game and forced an extra end where they stole the shot to win the competition by seven shots to six. The winning rink was Bud Little, Ryan McCormack, Rae Graham & Graeme Black with the runners up being Callum Cameron, Russell Smith, Sandy Stevenson & Jim Black. Richard Smith overseen the presentation on behalf of the Dumfriesshire province Association and thanked the sponsors and everybody involved in the organisation the competition before presenting the trophy and prizes to the winners and runners up.
