

LOCKERBIE ICE RINK SCOTTISH PAIRS

The final of the Lockerbie qualifier for the Scottish Curling pairs championship sponsored by Andy Thom Plumbing and Heating Ltd was played recently at Lockerbie ice rink. The final was between the pairs of Graeme Black (Skip) & Craig Strawhorn and Robbie (Skip) & Ryan McCormack. After an exciting final with the game going into last end all square at three shots each, the McCormacks stole a shot to win the game.

Dave Stewart on behalf of the ice rink management welcomed everyone to the prize giving and thanked the sponsor for providing funding for the finalist's ice and prizes. Andy Thom then presented the prizes to the runners up and winners. Both the winners and runners up will represent Lockerbie in the Scottish Finals at Stranraer in March 2023.
