

Lockerbie Ice rink Club Championship

The 2022-23 Club Championship final was played at Lockerbie Ice Rink last week. The final of the competition sponsored by Air Climate Solutions and the AC Little Builder was played between the rinks skipped by Robert McBride and Rae Graham. It was the Graham rink that started the better and led by six shots to nil at the halfway stage. McBrides rink cm back into the game scoring five shots over the next three ends, eventually losing the game by six shots too five. The winning rink consisted of Rae Graham (Skip), Stuart Grieve, Anne Smith and John Whitaker, with the runners up being the rink of Robert McBride (Skip), Les Goodwin, John Smith and Danial Cowan. Richard Smith on behalf of the ice rink management thanked the sponsors and anyone else involved in the organising of the competition before asking Bud Little to present the trophy and prizes to the finalists. Pictured is a photo of the winners (left to right). Anne Smith, Stuart Grieve, Rae Graham, Bud Little, & John Whitaker.